Karl Sundquist Appointed to lead the Range Division

St. Louis County Attorney Mark Rubin announces that Karl Sundquist has been selected to be the next Range Division Head, effective August 1, 2020.

"Karl brings experience in not only criminal law but also civil and public health & human service matters. Combined with his Range roots, Karl is well suited to the challenges of this new undertaking," said Rubin.

The Virginia, MN, native graduated from Gustavus Adolphus College in 1998 with majors in political science and speech communications, and earned his law degree from William-Mitchell School of Law in 2001.

Karl has worked in the County Attorney's Office for 16 years, most recently as a prosecutor in the Virginia office. As an experienced prosecutor, Karl has been instrumental in mentoring new prosecutors in the Range offices.

"I am excited to have the opportunity to be a Division Head for the St. Louis County Attorney's Offices on the Range. It is a privilege to work with such exceptional people who work diligently serving the public in many different capacities in our Range communities." Sundquist said.
